OVER-NIGHT ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE

To the Advertiser

CALUMET, Mich., Dec. 25.—The lives of 74 persons was the toll of a drunken man's cry of "fire" in a crowded hall during Christmas exercises here last night.

It was during the middle of the exercises that a drunken man arose in the audience, shouted "fire," and in a moment the wild rush for the narrow stairway followed. The passage-way was speedily blocked and the panic-stricken men, women and children jumped and trampled each other to death in their wild efforts to get out.

When fear had finally passed, and it required but a few moments, the entrance was packed as high as the ceiling with the corpses of those who but a few moments before were happily enjoying the holiday festivities. In a number of cases the victims had been trampled to death, but most of the victims had been suffocated in the jam.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 25.—Faced by positive identification by a number of his victims, including Dr. A. B. Clark, a Honolulu dentist, John Bostick yesterday broke down and confessed that he is the lone bandit who held up a Southern Pacific express train at El Monte, in Southern California, December 1, and killed James Montague, a traveling salesman, when the latter was slow in raising his hands above his head as commanded. The confession was made to Sheriff Hammel, Bostick going into all the details and describing his movements for a month or more previous to his last crime. The confession included an admission that he attempted to hold up a passenger train at Richmond November 14 last.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 25.—With preparations complete for one of the biggest Christmas Eve celebrations ever held in San Francisco, it is estimated that 200,000 persons were disappointed last night because of a rain storm. It began raining early in the afternoon and continued throughout the night. Though the weather was warm the moisture made it impossible to hold the monster open air concert and the carol singing was carried on only by small groups sheltered beneath awnings.

The rain is general throughout the country and is of much value to the agricultural interests.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 25.—Vice-President Marshall, tired after 10 months' session as president of the United States senate, is vacationing in Indianapolis. He sounded his opinion last night in stating that he believes the nation has had enough legislation and that for the present at least the Democratic party should not undertake any further lawmaking. At this time, said Vice-President Marshall further, there is no necessity for any anti-trust legislation.

HERMOSILLO, Mex., Dec. 25.—General Villa, with a force of 4200 well-armed cavalrymen, left here for Ojinaga to give battle to General Ortega and the strong federal force now controlling that city. Heavy fighting has been going on at Torreon. More than 10,000 troops are engaged, but the result is not known here. Communication is demoralized because of the fact that the federals, resorting to guerrilla tactics, are cutting the wires.

BERGEN, Norway, Dec. 25.—Thousands first "S. O. S." call to be received from the Arctic Ocean by wireless was picked up here last Tuesday, and will probably result in the saving of the lives of those aboard the Norwegian steamer Sagvold Jarl. The vessel is ashore at Lareden Islands. A vessel has been dispatched to the aid of the stranded vessel and crew.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girls! Try It! Hair gets soft, fluffy and luxuriant at once—No more falling hair

If you care for heavy hair, that glitters with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff, you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots fashish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually—why not now?—advertisements.

Chicago men are protesting against the use of perfumes by women serving as judges and clerks in the elections, claiming them to be as objectionable as tobacco smoke to which the women objected.

MEDEIROS DEAL SAYS ROSE IN MESSAGE TODAY

Deputy Sheriff Will Retain Route in Honolulu

Attorney-general Thayer afternoon received the following message from Deputy Sheriff Charles Rose in San Francisco:

"Revel aboard Honolulu. Medeiros died yesterday, Sierra."

Walter Revel is coming to answer charges of old worthless checks. Medeiros a material and believed to be the principal witness in Mrs. William Welsh case.

E. A. Mott-Smith, secretary territory, who arrived here yesterday night from San Francisco, that when he sailed from the Medeiros was suffering from malarial fever and was growing weak. "After he was arrested in Oakland," said Mr. Mott-Smith, "he was taken to San Francisco and was soon down with the fever. Just before he was reported to be in condition, but I thought within a time he would be sufficiently recovered to make the trip here."

Attorney J. M. Camara, who Attorney J. L. Coke is engaged prosecution of Mrs. William Welsh perjury growing out of her testimony in the Medeiros case, stated this noon that he could "not say of what bearing the death of Medeiros would have on the case."

SUICIDAL WAVE SWEEPS CITY FESTIVE SEAS

A suicidal wave swept over Honolulu during the season when the festive Yuletide was supposed to prevail and the spirit of good will would be scattered.

A half dozen candidates for merit at the Queen's hospital brought to the attention of the Wednesday afternoon and last each having attempted to stuff by various methods, ranging from plain unadorned carbolic route to the bungling employment a penknife.

As the speedy ambulance, many a company of police officers attended each case, they were fully informed that the patient was a victim of too much liquid. In the several attempts to take the fatalities were reported this morning the patients being in a fair way recovery.
